Department of Washington
Oratorical Contest

To: Post, District, and Area Oratorical Recruiters

From: Carol Reed, Department Oratorical Chairman

Subject: Oratorical Program

Thank you all for being involved in the High School Oratorical Contest. I know some of you have some experience and know what an inspiring effort this is; and to those that are new, I can tell you that the more you talk to others the more you will enjoy the experience.

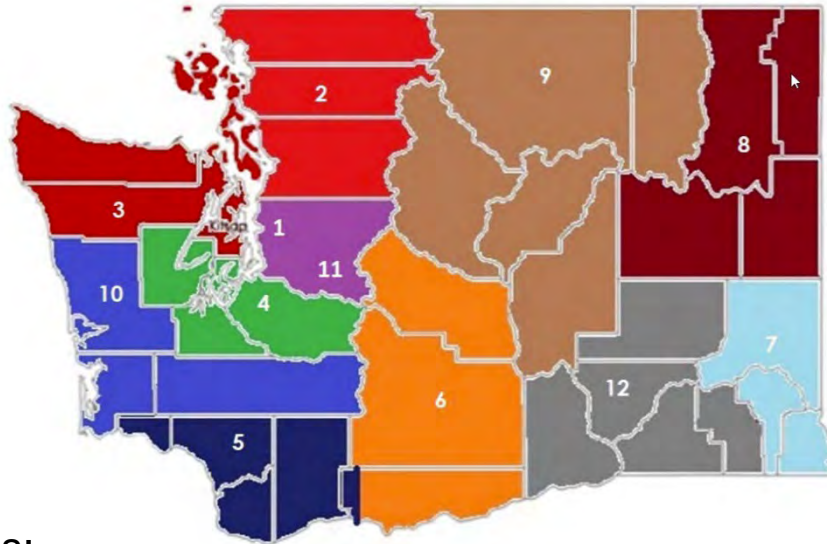

This guide was developed to provide you with the necessary tools to promote the contest and conduct a certification event. For a new person, it can seem daunting. We have tried to keep the guide organized and easy for you to find the answers you need, but always feel free to call, text or email me with a question.

Attending the contest is the very best way to learn and I encourage you to find a Post or District near you where you can see a certification event in action. I also suggest you do a dry run of a certification event on your own, reading through the entire script and getting your friends or family to be actors so you can figure out where you want them to stand or walk and where the flag will be and when they will salute. A little practice goes a long way towards giving a more polished contest.

Thanks again for getting involved!

INTRODUCTION

This guide has been developed to help with organizing and conducting a successful recruitment at the Post, District, and Area levels for the Oratorical Contest. Here in Washington State, we conduct the actual contest over a single weekend. We will accept all qualified and certified applicants without limitation to which Post, District or Area they are being sponsored from. This guide is offered as an aid, and Chairs should be familiar with the rules and information contained herein.

The students have worked very hard to prepare their speeches and compete and we aim to give them the best possible contest and opportunity.

As a Chair, you will need to provide the initiative to get the students interested and ready to compete. Delegate when you can and work smarter, not harder by using technology to reach more people. Ask questions and ask for help or advice along the way. We are all in this together for the enrichment of the students.

Amendment XXIII

The District constituting the seat of Government of the United States shall appoint in such manner as the Congress may direct:

A number of electors of President and Vice President equal to the whole number of Senators and Representatives in Congress to which the District would be entitled if it were a State, but in no event more than the least populous State; they shall be in addition to those appointed by the State, but they shall be considered, for the purposes of the election of President and Vice President, to be electors appointed by a State; and they shall meet in the District and perform such duties as provided by the twelfth article of amendment.

Amendment XXV, Section 3

Whenever the President transmits to the President pro tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives his written declaration that he is unable to discharge the powers and duties of his office, and until he transmits to them a written declaration to the contrary, such powers and duties shall be discharged by the Vice President as Acting President.

WHAT DO THE CONTESTANTS PREPARE?

The Prepared Oration

The prepared oration must be on some aspect of the Constitution of the United States with emphasis on the duties and obligations of a citizen to our government. The same subject and oration used in the Department contest must be used in the National contest. The prepared oration must be the original effort of each contestant and presentation should be at least eight minutes but not longer than 10 minutes in length.

This aspect of the Constitution is the choice of the contestant but should have a strong emphasis on the obligations of a citizen to their government. Contestants should not use their name or home city/state in their oration as judges should not know this information before they have completed judging all contestants.

The Prepared Oration must be delivered in the English language. Contestants may have a hard copy of their oration in the first holding room to study but must give the copy to the holding room monitor when exiting the room to give their Prepared Oration. Cell phones or tablets are not allowed. In the prepared oration, as well as in the assigned topic discourse, quotations must be indicated as such.

Where quotations are more than 10 words in length, the author's name must be given in the manuscript and cited orally. Signing is not allowed and will result in immediate disqualification. The contestant may, however, quote a verse(s) of a song, provided proper attribution is made.

A hard copy of the Prepared Oration should be given to the Department Oratorical Chairman at the Pre-Contest Briefing on Friday evening. The Prepared Oration given should remain largely the same at each level of the contest though minor changes are allowed.

The Assigned Topics

The assigned topic discourse must be at least three but not more than five minutes in length. The purpose of the assigned topic discourse is to test the speaker's knowledge of the subject, the extent of his or her research, and the ability to discuss the topic as related to the basic principles of government under the Constitution. The assigned topic will be drawn by the contest official in full view of the audience immediately before the last speaker begins delivery of his/her prepared oration and will be made known to the audience and each contestant approximately five minutes prior to the time of delivery.

The topic will be on some aspect of the Constitution of the United States as listed under assigned topics at www.legion.org/oratorical/topics.

All contestants at each contest level are required to speak in the English language on the same assigned topic. It is acceptable to utilize or incorporate short phrases of a foreign language into the prepared oration and/or assigned topic in order to develop the argument, establish a point, etc. It is to be understood that the vast majority of the prepared oration and/or assigned topic must still be delivered in the English language.

If multiple contests are taking place at the same time, an assigned topic is drawn separately for each contest. Therefore, the contestants in different contests will likely be speaking on different topics during this phase of their respective contests.

CONTESTANT ELIGIBILITY

Eligible participants in The American Legion National High School Oratorical Contest shall be citizens or lawful permanent residents of the United States.

All contestants must be bona fide students herein described as any student under the age of twenty (20) years on the date of the National Contest who is presently enrolled in a high school or junior high school (public, parochial, military, private or state accredited home school), in which the curriculum is considered to be of high school level, commencing with grade nine (9) and terminated with grade twelve (12). Students must be enrolled in high school or junior high school during the time of participation at any level of The American Legion National High School Oratorical Contest. Further, to participate in the Washington Contest, students must be residents of the State of Washington. Students whose parents are legal residents of another state must participate in that state. Homeschooled students are welcome to participate.

CONTEST ATTIRE

- Appropriate business attire is required for all contestants.
- Uniforms (school, JROTC, etc.) are NOT permitted.
- Contestants cannot wear awards, medals or ribbons from previous competitions or from other clubs or organizations; nor should they wear school pins.
- A flag lapel pin is acceptable.

APPROPRIATE CERTIFICATION VENUES

It is important that certification is held in a suitable location that is family friendly. You can host it at your local Post, a library, or a local school. No certification contest should be hosted at or near a bar. Your audience members are students and parents, and we strive to give them a setting that is healthy, comfortable, and welcoming.

If you want to host your certification at the Post and the room you are using has a bar, the bar should be closed until all students and parents have left the premises. Alcohol cannot be served while students and parents are present. If students must walk through the bar area to reach the presentation room, then the bar should be closed for business until the contest is over.

The Department encourages you to hold your contest at a public place as it will naturally draw more attention to the contest. Also, when several American Legion members show up with hats and uniforms to watch a contest, it shows the community more about who we are and what we do. Rural communities have fewer options, but we do encourage you to be creative.

If your venue has a raised platform for the contestants to stand on, that is ideal. It is recommended, but optional. If there is no platform, consider marking off an area on a stage or floor so that all students stay within the marked area.

PROMOTING THE CONTEST

One of the most challenging aspects of being an Oratorical Chair is successfully promoting the contest. This is especially true in these times of COVID-19 when schools may not allow visitors and students may be taking classes from home virtually. It is essential to use social media and digital platforms to promote our contest.

Here are some suggestions about ways or places to promote the contest, but ultimately, it is up to you to decide how to reach your target audience in your local area.

CONTEST POLICY STATEMENTS

The following policies are set forth by the Department Oratorical Committee. These policies are in effect and shall be adhered to for all contests held in the state of Washington.

1. The National High School Oratorical Contest rules prevail at all levels of the Department contest.
2. Any qualified student who is a permanent resident of the state of Washington may enter the Oratorical Contest provided that he or she is sponsored by a Legion Post, Auxiliary Unit, SAL Squadron or Riders Chapter.
3. Certification of contestants should be forwarded to the Department Chairman immediately following the respective Certification event. These forms may be hand delivered, sent by email, or via USPS mail. Each Chair should keep a copy of the forms and send the original to the Department Chairman.
4. At your local certification event the contestants may, or may not, be at a point of having their speeches finalized and memorized. Cut them some slack here if they need to check their notes – they still have a month to get their speech fully memorized. They just need to be aware that at the State Contest no notes are allowed and prompting by parent, judges or audience members will result in immediate disqualification of a contestant.
5. It is okay for the contestants to be in the room to hear each other's presentations at your local certification event.
6. Props of any kind are not allowed. It's okay to gesture toward the U.S. Flag, but they may not touch it during their presentation.
7. All local certification events should be held in local Posts, high schools, or other appropriate facilities. Some additional suggested venues are listed in the guide under the topic Appropriate Venues.
8. The script should be followed exactly as written so that each contestant will have experienced the contest as it will be conducted at both the Department and National contest levels. If you wish to make a custom introduction or conclusion you may, but once your contest starts, you should follow the script exactly as written.
9. Certification events with only one contestant shall be conducted under regular contest conditions and rules to give the contestant an opportunity to experience the contest in full.
10. For volunteers working directly with students, a local background check is recommended but not required. However, at no time shall a volunteer,

Legionnaire or Oratorical committee member be alone with a student. Also, at no time shall a Legionnaire touch a student, except to shake hands. There should be no hugging or putting an arm around a student's shoulder or waist before, during or after the contest, including photographs. We expect our Legion members to be above reproach when dealing with students who are typically minors or very young adults. If a background check is completed, it is at your own expense.

Checklist For Recruiting & Certification

Before Contest Day

September

- Begin contacting schools, teachers and youth groups and trying to get students interested in taking part. Flyers can be found on the contest website at <https://waconstitutionalspeechcontest.org/home/recruiter-resources/>
- Choose your Post Chair or other volunteers to help.

October

- Promote the contest on your Post/District social media accounts if available
- Send a notice to your local newspaper, radio and TV station to let them know about the contest. Notify schools about the contest. You can use the Invitation to Compete as a guide of what to give your news outlets or write your own. This Invitation is attached at the end of the guide.

November/December

- Continue promoting the contest on social media, TV, radio, to schools, churches, and youth organizations.
- Continue trying to get student contestants.

January

- Choose your venue making sure it's open on the date and time you want to have your certification. Make sure your date falls before the certification deadline.
- Follow up with evaluators and volunteers and students to make sure everyone knows the certification contest date and see if anyone has any issues.

February

- Finalize and re-confirm the venue, all evaluators, and volunteers. Check to make sure your venue has an American Flag still in place. A podium is very helpful for the moderator.
- Send signed, original copy of Certification form to the Department Chairman upon completion of the event.

Chair needs:

- The Script
- Certification forms for each contestant
- Four envelopes with the Assigned Topics
- An American Flag if your venue does not have one on site
- Stopwatch(es) for Timekeeper(s)
- Bottled water for the contestants and evaluators

Certification Day

- Arrive early to set up needed tables and chairs.
- Make sure people can find the entrance to the venue and that there is adequate parking. Heavy rains or other inclement weather can unexpectedly flood a parking lot.
- If necessary, mark off an area for the speakers.
- If more than one contestant, prepare your container with the numbers for the contestants to draw their placement.
- As contestants arrive have a volunteer show them around the venue so they can see where the restrooms are and where the event will take place.

Order Of Appearance Of Contestants

- When all the contestants have arrived, a contest official conducts a drawing to decide the order in which contestants appear. This is a random drawing of numbers. The contestants appear in the same order for both the Prepared Oration and the Assigned Topic discourse.
- If a contestant is traveling a great distance and is late due to inclement weather or conditions out of their control (such as traveling by bus), if all contestants agree, the contest can be postponed for a short time to give the contestant time to arrive. Any postponement should not exceed an hour but will be left to the discretion of the Chair.

Timekeeper Instructions

There shall be a timekeeper for the contest located on the main floor and in full view of the contestants as they deliver their orations.

Timekeepers shall be equipped with:

- Stopwatch
- Timekeeper Record Card
- Time Cards Numbered 8, 9, and 10 for Prepared Oration
- Time Cards Numbered, 3, 4, and 5 for Assigned Topic
- Clipboards
- Pencils

The Chair will meet with the Timekeeper prior to the contest. It is recommended that the Time Cards have the large, bold numbers printed on both sides. When a Timekeeper is holding a card up for the contestant to see, then the audience behind the Timekeeper can see which minute mark the contestant is at.

Timing Procedure

1. Begin when contestant begins his Prepared Oration and stop when contestant ceases to speak.
2. Enter exact time consumed (in minutes and seconds) for both the Prepared Oration and the Assigned Topic on the Timekeeper Record Card.
3. Prepared Oration must not be less than eight (8) or more than ten (10) minutes. When eight (8) minutes have been consumed, hold the number 8 card so that it can easily be seen by the contestant for several seconds. Do not wave or move the card from side to side. Repeat when nine and ten minutes have been consumed.
4. Assigned Topic must not be less than three (3) or more than five (5) minutes. Repeat the process explained above, using numbered cards 3, 4, and 5.

Reporting Time Consumed

1. The Chair will advise how you should report time to them.
2. You shall report minutes and seconds consumed.
3. For the benefit of the evaluators, the chair shall announce the time consumed by each contestant for both the Prepared Oration and Assigned Topic immediately after each contestant speaks.
